Local tourist information

Stadium Marketa can be found in the north-west part of Prague, just above the Brevnov Monastery, in a quiet residential area of Brevnov - Prague 6, about 20 minutes via public transport from the city centre.

By metro: The newly opened section of the metro line A makes Speedway fans' travels around Prague much easier. Travelling from Wenceslas Square to Petriny takes only fifteen minutes these days, with no further need of transfer. The line A heading to the Nemocnice Motol terminal. Marketa Stadium is located in the district of Petriny, therefore it is necessary to get off at a stop of the very same name. Most people would be heading towards the escalators but the speedway fans should aim for the elevators at the opposite side of the platform. Those would bring up the spectators to Brunclikova Street, which leads right to Marketa. It is approximately three-minute walk between the metro and the stadium.

By bus: There is also a direct bus connection to the stadium, bus No. 191 from the Airport (approx 20mins). Nad Marketou bus stop is right next to the stadium.

By tram: Trams No. 22 and No. 25 run to Vypich, whilst No.1 and No.2 go to Petriny.

By car: Motorway D5 (E50) from Plzen (Pilsen) Exit: 1/23 (E48) to left Chomutov, Praha. Repy Airport, after 2kms (Exit 26) turn off to right Praha Repy Centrum straight ahead Centrum Brevnov, on 7th lights left.